BIO

Carla Grunauer.

Born 1982 in Tucumán, Argentina. Currently lives and works in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Grunauer has a Bachelor's degree in Plastic Arts from the National University of Tucumán, and she was selected to participate in the Artists Program coordinated by Carlos Huffmann at the Torcuato Di Tella University, between 2017 and 2018.

In 2017, Grunauer received Espacio Tucumán's T4 Grant for production projects in Buenos Aires. In 2015, she received the scholarship awarded by Amigo del Interior (Buenos Aires, Argentina) to participate in workshops with Javier Villa, Carlos Huffmann, Cecilia Szalkowicz, and Martín Legón. In 2015 she received a scholarship to the "Systematic Study of Drawing" workshop at the University Torcuato Di Tella, under the direction of Eduardo Stupía. In 2013 she received a scholarship from the National Endowment for the Arts to participate in a workshop with Rafael Cippolini.

Carla Grunauer's artwork has been shown in individual and group exhibitions in different galleries and museums in Argentina, Peru, and Spain, including: Crisis Galería (Lima, Perú); Vigil Gonzales Galería (Lima, Perú); Proyecto Nohacernada (México); Museum of the National University of Tucumán (Tucumán, Argentina); Timoteo Navarro Provincial Museum of Fine Arts (Tucumán, Argentina); Guillermina Caicoya Project (Madrid, Spain); Klemm Foundation (Buenos Aires, Argentina); Espacio Cripta (Tucumán, Argentina); Piedras Galería (Buenos Aires, Argentina); Torcuato Di Tella University (Buenos Aires, Argentina); Heraldito Conti Cultural Center (Buenos Aires, Argentina); Genaro Perez Museum (Córdoba, Argentina); Dumit House (Tucumán, Argentina); National Endowment for the Arts (Buenos Aires, Argentina); and Un Club (Tucumán, Argentina), among others.

From 2010 to 2013 Grunauer co-directed the activities, workshops, and exhibitions at El Rancho, a contemporary art space in San Miguel de Tucumán (Argentina).

Her work is part of public and private collections.
